Supervisor Greg Cox

In the Coming Week

COX TO BE NAMED STATEWIDE LEADER

As testimony to his career of service as a local government leader in San Diego County, Supervisor Cox is expected to be installed as President of the California State Association of Counties (CSAC), an organization that represents all 58 California counties. Cox's leadership of CSAC makes him the first elected official in State history elected to statewide leadership of both city and county organizations, serving both as President of CSAC and formerly as President of the League of California Cities as Mayor of Chula Vista in 1987-88.

Thursday, November 18 at 7:15 pm in the California Ballroom of the San Diego Convention Center, 111 West Harbor Drive, San Diego. (NOTE: Supervisor Cox's installation will take place at the CSAC Annual Banquet that is part of the four day CSAC Annual Conference)

COUNTIES THINK TANK CONVENED IN SAN DIEGO

Supervisor Greg Cox will represent the County of San Diego at the California State Association of Counties (CSAC) Annual Meeting in San Diego where Supervisor from across the State convene to address pressing issues for County government. This year, the discussions will likely focus on the continuing budget challenges of the State and long-term fiscal reform. Highlights of the conference include remarks by California Attorney General Bill Lockyer, White House Director of Intergovernmental Affairs, Ruben Barrales and a variety of workshops covering hot County issues like "The Future of Elections in California" and "The Latest News on Indian Gaming."

CSAC Annual Conference runs Tuesday, November 16 through Friday, November 19, all day, at the San Diego Convention Center, 111 West Harbor Drive, San Diego. (NOTE: An agenda and other information about the conference is available at www.csac.counties.org)
